Belly Dancing Class Offered on New River’s Nicholas County Campus

[Summersville, WV] New River Community and Technical College will offer a beginning class in Ancient Egyptian Belly Dance starting on July 6. Belly dancing is a great way to manage your weight, tone and firm while having fun. Even if you have had lessons in the past, you can join this class to refresh your memory, practice or learn a new style. Classes will be held on the Nicholas County Campus of New River in Summersville, WV, on Tuesday evenings starting at 6 p.m. from July 6 through August 10.

This six-week class, taught by Sherry Davenport, will teach you the basics to get started with a fun new hobby and release your inner goddess. Anyone who attended the Empowering Women’s Conference at Tamarack will remember her presentation and definitely want to attend.

Davenport is a native of the Outer Banks of North Carolina. She began belly dancing nine years ago and wants to share the joy of this ancient dance with the women of West Virginia. She believes that dancing isn't simply a passion, it's the soul brought to life from the music, culture and dance moves. Davenport and her husband, Mike, recently moved to Richwood and they are very excited about their new life in West Virginia.

This is a basic course for beginners of all ages. Call Mary Igo or Beverly McCutcheon at New River Community and Technical College, (304) 872-4520, to register and learn more about this exciting course.
