August 17, 2010

New River Community and Technical College Offers Conversational Spanish Class in Summersville

[SUMMERSVILLE, WV] New River Community and Technical College will offer a new community education class entitled “Conversational Spanish” beginning Sept. 1 in Summersville.

Whether you are planning an exotic vacation at some point in your future, or are just interested in learning a second language for personal enrichment, this class is for you. Taught by local business owner Providencia Acabeo-Smith, this class will address the basic communication skills of the Spanish language.

A native of San Juan, PR, Acabeo-Smith has been a Summersville resident for the past 14 years. She is co-owner of Gauley River Physical Therapy, LLC with her husband, Arthur Smith. Very fluent in the Spanish language, she will make learning a second language both useful and fun.

The class is scheduled for six consecutive Wednesday evenings from 6- 8 p.m. at the Workforce WV Career Center at 830 Northside Drive in Summersville. Call 304-872-4520 today to reserve your spot as this class will fill quickly.

-end-