Dr. Shirley Davis Promoted to Associate Professor at New River

Dr. Shirley McQuade Davis has been promoted from assistant to associate professor of Mathematics at New River Community and Technical College. Her promotion was announced by Dr. Harry R. Faulk, executive vice president and chief academic officer.

A member of the New River faculty for the past four years, Davis teaches at New River’s Raleigh County Campus at the Public Higher Education Center in Beaver. She previously taught in the Raleigh County Schools and was an adjunct instructor for Bluefield State College and New River.

Davis is originally from Fayette and Nicholas Counties. She is a graduate of West Virginia University and holds master’s degrees from WVU and Marquette University. She earned her doctorate from Michigan State University.
In addition to more than 40 years of teaching, she worked as a consultant for Macmillan, McGraw-Hill, and Merrill Publishing Companies for 10 years. Her word problem strategy, Thinking Patterns, is acknowledged in the Saxon K-8 Mathematics textbook series.
