DANIELLE HOKE WINS NEW RIVER’S BUSINESS PLAN COMPETITION

Danielle Hoke of Maxwelton, WV, a student on the Greenbrier Valley Campus of New River Community and Technical College in Lewisburg, has been selected the winner of the first-ever New River Business Plan Competition. Her plan for opening a coffee shop earned her a Dell laptop computer and printer and recognition at the West Virginia Small Business Administration Awards Luncheon at Tamarack in Beckley on Thursday, May 13.

The Business Plan Competition was sponsored by New River Community and Technical College and the Women's Business and Training Center. The contest was open to all full- and part-time students on New River's five campuses. Students could enter as individuals or in teams of five or less.
