“WOMEN IN UNIONS” TOPIC OF SECOND WOMEN’S HISTORY MONTH PROGRAM AT NEW RIVER GV CAMPUS

[LEWISBURG, WV] A second Women’s History Month program will be held on Wednesday, March 17, on the Greenbrier Valley Campus of New River Community and Technical College in Lewisburg, WV.

Elaine Harris, an international representative for the Communications Workers of America, will be the speaker at 2 p.m. in Room 307 of Greenbrier Hall, 101 Church Street in Lewisburg. Here theme will be “Women in Unions: Yesterday, Today, and Tomorrow.” The program is open to the public free of charge.

Harris is the manager for Communication Workers of America, AFL-CIO, Local 2055 in Charleston and is also associated with the West Virginia Women’s Commission which organizes Women’s Day at the Legislature each year.

For further information on this and other programs and courses of study available at New River Community and Technical College Greenbrier Valley Campus, telephone 304-647-6560 or e-mail Wanda Johnson, program coordinator in the office of Student Services, wjohnson@newriver.edu.
